PLAYING CROSSWORDS

Crosswords are one of the greatest word association puzzles of all time. Our crosswords are easy enough to do in one session or to complete over time. Use the clues to fill in the answers on the grid. Work with a friend if you want as sometimes two heads are better than one when solving a crossword puzzle. The more puzzles you complete, the better you will get.

PLAYING SUDOKU

To solve a Sudoku puzzle every number from 1 to 9 must appear in:

- Each of the nine vertical columns
- Each of the nine horizontal rows
- Each of the nine 3x3 blocks

Sudokus are definitely a puzzle to test your concentration!

PLAYING WORDSEARCH

Find all the words listed, hidden in the grid of letters. They can be found in straight lines, up, down, backwards, forwards and even diagonally.

PLAYING TRIVIA

Trivia is a great way to test your memory for general knowledge and history. Simply write your answers underneath each question.

Great to do with friends or on your own.

PLAYING REBUS PUZZLE

Rebus puzzles use letters and pictures to cryptically represent a word, phrase or saying. They are sometimes known as Pictograms.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

William Boeing

Aviation Pioneer

BORN October 1st, 1881

DIED 1956 (aged 74)

NATIONALITY American

William Boeing was an aviation pioneer who founded The Boeing Company in 1916. He was born in Michigan of immigrant parents; his mother from Austria and his father from Germany.

In 1909, he saw a manned flying machine for the first time and became fascinated. He took flying lessons and purchased his own plane. When the plane was damaged, he was told that replacement parts would not be available for months. Boeing told his friend, "We could build a better plane ourselves and build it faster." They soon built and flew the B & W Seaplane, an amphibian biplane that had outstanding performance.

When America entered the First World War, Boeing obtained orders from the US Navy for 50 planes. At the end of the war, Boeing concentrated on commercial aircraft to service airmail contracts.

Boeing was married and had 1 son.

Who is Who?

Ena and Elsie were identical twins,
Both were blonde, and had double chins,
When at school, they were both in collusion,
To causing madness, mayhem and confusion!

And when they were older, they both did marry,
Identical twins, called Larry and Harry,
They could'nt have known, they were courting trouble,
Or that every day from now on, they'd be seeing double!

If Ena went to town to shop,
Then with her twin Elsie, she'd do a swap,
As spending money, Larry did hate,
So he would'nt know if Ena were late!

This swapping went on for many years,
The girls were confident, they had no fears,
Unknown to them, husbands Larry and Harry,
A secret also, it seemed they carried.

If Harry wanted a night at the club,
Larry would steal around, or Elsie would blub,
And if Larry with the boys, went for a night out,
Harry would be home early, or Ena would pout!

So this was life, for the two sets of twins,
Their motto it seems, was "who dares wins"
They all believed, they were loyal and true,
But they lost track in the end, of who was with who!!

Talent By The Tonne

Each week our writers group does meet, And to each others work, we do entreat , Tales of murder,
mystery, romance and suspense, All this we hear,
for just fifty pence!

Leo writes of love that's "erotic"
I can't, and it makes me neurotic !
Glen writes stories, with a wonderful twist,
I think somehow, the literary boat I have missed!

Myra writes with deep emotion,
As for me, I haven't a notion!
Nigel and Brian. are writing about Turkey,
There's humour and adventure, and deeds so murkey!

There's Chris and Olwen. and by them we're led,
Organising to make sure, all our work is read,
We all plod steadfastly on, and we don't get affected,
By deep depression when our work gets rejected!

Busily composing, our poems and prose,
A future "block buster", maybe, who knows!
From writing I'll probably never earn any money,
So I'll stick to what I'm best at - writing poetry funny!
